

CARLOS SÁNCHEZ NAVARRO

With more than twenty years experience, Carlos Sánchez is an expert in project management and financial and economic feasibility studies for infrastructure and energy.

He is Grupo Mundi's Director for Energy and Infrastructure, and as such oversees project design, planning and management. His experience spans the service and consumer fuel industries, as well as general infrastructure planning and financing projects.